

An Appeal...

... to help us maintain and enhance the Craigmyle Glebe, Woldingham's recreation ground.

The Glebe is a valuable amenity at the centre of our village, open for all to enjoy. It is named after the first Lord Craigmyle, who purchased the land from a developer in 1934 and generously gave it to the village to use in perpetuity for sports and recreation.

Craigmyle Glebe Limited spends considerable amounts each year on upkeep; it does not however receive any general support from Tandridge Council or elsewhere. Since its founding it has instead relied on the generosity of people of the village to help it improve and keep up to date this wonderful amenity. For further information about the Glebe, including how to contact the clubs that use it, please consult our village's website, www.woldingham.com

We especially welcome Gift Aid contributions, which can be made by means of this form.
